

Management - Undergraduate Programs

OVERVIEW

Management focuses on general management, entrepreneurship, human resources and international management. Programs strive to provide students with the planning, problem-solving, critical thinking, and interpersonal skills needed to be successful in their roles as managers and leaders in business. The Department of Management provides several options for individuals pursuing undergraduate degrees.

The BBA in Entrepreneurship is a specialized degree. Students will gain an entrepreneurial mindset along with the knowledge and skills necessary for successfully launching and expanding a new venture. These skills include assessing your venture's value proposition, crafting a compelling narrative about your business, developing a business model that drives growth, comprehending the financial aspects of the startup process, and crafting a comprehensive business plan.

The BBA in Human Resource Management is a specialized degree. Students will gain skills and knowledge in staffing, compensation, training and development, employment law, and managing a diverse workforce. These skills are applicable in any industry and prepare students for jobs as HR Generalists or specialists in recruiting, compensation, training, diversity management and employee relations.

The BBA in Management is a general management degree. Students have the flexibility to gain skills and knowledge across a broad range of areas including strategic management, leadership, diversity, and teamwork. The BBA in Management has an optional track in International Management.

In addition to the three BBA programs, the Management Department also offers two undergraduate certificates: Certificate in Entrepreneurship and Certificate in Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations.
