

Theatre Arts and Dance - Undergraduate Programs

Mission and Objective

The mission of the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance in the College of Liberal Arts at The University of Texas at Arlington is to provide a comprehensive undergraduate education through theory, research, and practice in the theatre arts and dance.

The objective of the department is to provide an extensive and wide-ranging education in the theatrical and dance professions through applied and practical experiences acquired through performance and production opportunities. Undergraduate students in the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance explore the components which comprise the performance and production event. The research of new theories and their applications to the art, craft, and management of Theatre Arts and Dance is highly encouraged through one-on-one mentoring and supervision by specialized, professional faculty. A primary aspect of the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance is to provide a challenging educational environment for each student characterized by shared values, unity of purpose, diversity of opinion, mutual respect, and a commitment to lifelong learning. The following degrees are offered:

- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Theatre Arts
- Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) in Theatre Arts with concentrations in:
 - Design and Technology
 - Musical Theatre
 - Acting

In addition, the Department offers the following minors:

- Minor in Dance
- Minor in Theatre Arts

Dance courses are listed as Dance (DNCE). Several approved university core courses are also offered by the department that satisfy core degree requirements in other disciplines.

Production and Performance

Production and performance within the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance at the University of Texas at Arlington provides a laboratory for curricular exploration and a showcase for the creative research of the academic program. Professional faculty and guest artists work with students to present a wide variety of plays and musicals from past and current theatrical literature with a special focus on new play development. Every student, upon admission to a theatre degree program in the department participates in productions through coursework and practicums. These activities directly support the academic objectives of the department.

The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Theatre Arts

Liberal Arts Requirements

The Bachelor of Arts degree provides a broad range of courses in theatre theory and practice, including acting, directing, technical theatre, dramatic literature, theatre history, and performance which offers breadth of experience and depth of inquiry. The B.A. is designed for students focused on the creation of new works: playwrights, directors, dramaturgs, and scholars.

Admission

In addition to the general requirements for admission to the University, the aspiring undergraduate must meet the following requirement for admission to the Bachelor of Arts degree program:

- Participation in advisement.

To be fully accepted in the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Theatre Arts degree program, all students must complete at least one semester as a "Theatre Arts Intended" student and earn a 2.0 cumulative grade point average in all courses including theatre courses taken at UT Arlington. Once these standards are met, the student may be declared as a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts major.

B.A. in Theatre Arts - Academic Requirements

All Theatre Arts majors shall enroll in THEA 0181 for one hour per semester - six (6) hours of THEA 0181 are required to graduate. Students should see their advisor regarding practicum obligations.

All B.A. students are encouraged to audition for each major production each semester they are enrolled, though they may choose to decline being considered for a role at the time of the audition. Production activities and Theatre Arts disciplinary rules are governed by a student handbook that is available to the student through the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance.

A minimum 2.0 overall grade point average is required for all courses, including theatre courses, taken at UT Arlington in order to remain in the B.A. degree program. Students currently enrolled at UT Arlington who wish to declare Theatre Arts as a major must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in overall coursework taken at UT Arlington in order to be admitted.

A student will be placed on departmental academic probation in the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance if her/his grade point average drops below the minimum university GPA requirements. The department follows university guidelines regarding Academic Probation, Academic Warning, Academic Continuance, and Academic Dismissal. Theatre Arts and Dance students will work with their Area Head and advisor while on academic probation to create a specific improvement plan. However, if after a regular semester the student's grade point average does not meet the minimum required grade point average, the student may, at the discretion of the program area head and department chair, be removed from the degree program and will be advised as to other degree plan alternatives, should they exist.

Department Scholarships

The Department of Theatre Arts and Dance offers limited talent-based scholarships to deserving students. Work-study positions may be available. Contact the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance for information.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.)

Liberal Arts Requirements

The Bachelor of Fine Arts degree is a specialized, pre-professional degree that provides a background in the liberal arts with specialized concentrations in: Design and Technology, Musical Theatre, or Acting.

- The Design and Technology Concentration is for students seeking a professional career as a scenic, lighting, sound or costume designer, technical director, and/or theatre technician.
- The Musical Theatre Concentration is designed for students seeking a professional career in musical theatre performance.
- The Acting Concentration is designed for students seeking a professional career as an actor.

Students seeking the B.F.A. elect additional courses chosen from the University and Liberal Arts core curricula outside the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance.

Admission - B.F.A.

The aspiring undergraduate must meet the following requirements for admission to the Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) degree program:

- * Participation in advisement.
- * A personal interview with a designated faculty member (all students).
- * A design/technical production portfolio review for the Design and Technology B.F.A. Concentration or an audition and interview for the Musical Theatre and the Acting B.F.A. Concentrations are required for admittance into one of these three B.F.A. Concentrations.
- * Upon acceptance by the University and the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance, an indication of an area of concentration (Design and Technology, Musical Theatre, or Acting) is required.

B.F.A. - Academic Requirements

All Theatre Arts majors shall enroll in THEA 0181 for one hour per the requirements of their B.F.A. concentration in order to graduate. Students should see their advisor regarding practicum obligations. Transfer students must discuss THEA 0181 requirements with the Theatre Arts academic advisor.

- B.F.A. Design and Technology Concentration students are required to present an updated portfolio and resume of production and course work at a formal portfolio review session at the end of each semester enrolled. Students are required to perform an assigned BFA assignment each semester enrolled. These assignments can be work on a departmental production or projects geared to enhancing specific skill sets and portfolio materials. The BFA assignment is in addition to the requirements of the THEA 0181 Theatre Practicum course and any other course work. BFA assignments will be assigned by the Area Head of the Design and Technology Concentration with consultation from the design and technology faculty. Upon completion of the final semester of the B.F.A. Design and Technology Concentration, students will present their work at an exit portfolio presentation showcasing the student's accumulated design and production work completed while enrolled in at UTA
- B.F.A. Musical Theatre Concentration students are required to audition for each major production each semester they are enrolled, unless special permission has been obtained in advance of the audition from the Musical Theatre Concentration Area Head or the Chair of the Department.

- B.F.A. Acting Concentration students are required to audition for each major production each semester they are enrolled, unless special permission has been obtained in advance of the audition from the Acting Concentration Area Head or the Chair of the Department.

A minimum grade point average of 2.0 is required in overall coursework taken at UT Arlington in order to remain in the B.F.A. degree program. A minimum grade point average of 2.0 is required for all Theatre courses taken at UT Arlington in order to remain in the B.F.A. degree program. Students currently enrolled at UT Arlington who wish to declare Theatre Arts as an intended B.F.A. major must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in overall coursework taken at UT Arlington, in addition to the admission requirements stated above, in order to be admitted.

Concurrent enrollment in more than one B.F.A. concentration is not allowed. A student must complete a B.F.A. concentration and graduate with that concentration before being allowed to enroll in a second B.F.A. concentration.

Students wishing to change their B.F.A. concentration from one plan to another must reapply for and be accepted by the faculty to the new concentration according to the application procedures applicable for that concentration. Students should be aware that changing B.F.A. concentrations may result in additional semesters of study. Students should contact their academic advisor to obtain a new graduation date when changing concentrations.

A student will be placed on departmental academic probation in the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance if her/his grade point average drops below the minimum university GPA requirements. The department follows university guidelines regarding Academic Probation, Academic Warning, Academic Continuance, and Academic Dismissal. Theatre Arts and Dance students will work with their Area Head and advisor while on academic probation to create a specific improvement plan. However, if after a regular semester the student's grade point average does not meet the minimum required grade point average, the student may, at the discretion of the program area head and department chair, be removed from the degree program and will be advised as to other degree plan alternatives, should they exist.

Production activities and Theatre Arts disciplinary rules shall be governed by a student handbook that is available to the student upon request through the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance or at <<https://www.uta.edu/theatre>>.

² THEA 1101 Theatre Symposium satisfies the UNIV 1131 course for entering Freshman Theatre Arts majors only. If a student is transferring in as a Theatre Arts major, the student shall enroll in UNIV 1101 instead of UNIV 1131. Discuss requirement with the Theatre Arts academic advisor.

³ All Theatre Arts majors will enroll in one (1) hour per semester THEA 0181 with up to (6) hours of THEA 0181 THEATRE PRACTICUM required to graduate. Students should see their advisor regarding practicum obligations. Transfer students must discuss THEA 0181 THEATRE PRACTICUM requirements with the Theatre Arts advisor.

 NOTE: The study grid above is for informational purposes only and is not an official degree plan. See the department's academic advisor for more information.

Students interested in theatre arts as a minor should consult a Theatre Arts Department advisor to determine the most advantageous selection of courses in light of their interests and experience. With such consultation, departmental prerequisites may be waived for the purposes of a Theatre Arts minor.

Requirements for a Minor in Dance (DNCE)

Any undergraduate student may elect to minor in Dance (DNCE). The Dance Minor offers a variety of dance technique and theory courses to develop a well-rounded artist/scholar. Students have some flexibility in designing their coursework with the ability to choose from a variety of DNCE elective courses towards the Dance Minor.

REQUIREMENTS

- At least four (4) credit hours in level 2 dance technique courses DNCE 3232, DNCE 3235, or DNCE 3236 must be completed at UT Arlington.
- A placement exam may be required prior to enrolling in level 2 technique courses.
- A maximum of two (2) credits of DNCE 1139 Dance Performance may be applied towards the Dance Minor.
- Eighteen (18) hours of specified Dance courses are required:

DNCE 1300	DANCE APPRECIATION	3
DNCE 3232	MODERN DANCE II	2
DNCE 3235	BALLET II	2
DNCE 3236	JAZZ DANCE II	2
Electives: A minimum of six (6) DNCE elective hours must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.		9
Total Hours		18

Students interested in a minor in Dance should consult with a Theatre Arts Department academic advisor to enroll in the appropriate courses.
