

Bachelor of Arts in Broadcasting

About This Program

The Bachelor of Arts in Broadcasting program prepares students for a wide range of career opportunities in the media sector. This program provides students with a strong foundation in both the technical and creative aspects of broadcasting, including production, editing, writing, reporting, and presentation. Students develop expertise in creating audio and video content, using broadcast equipment, and understanding the industry's legal and ethical standards. Students gain hands-on experience with state-of-the-art equipment, learning how to create compelling content, manage live broadcasts, and develop effective communication strategies. Whether working in television, radio, podcasting, or online platforms, graduates of this program are prepared to excel as producers, video editors, broadcast journalists, and content creators in an industry perpetually transformed by technological advancements.

Competencies

1. Upon completion of this major, students will have competency in discussing the role and function of broadcasting in society.
2. Upon completion of this major, students will have competency in recording professional-quality audio and video and creating projects using industry-standard editing tools.
3. Upon completion of this major, students will have competency in gathering, writing, and editing news and information for electronic media.
4. Upon completion of this major, students will have competency in demonstrating verbal and nonverbal communication skills required for delivery of broadcast information.
5. Upon completion of this major, students will have competency in collaborating with peers and/or clients to produce broadcast content.

Admissions Criteria

DECLARING A MAJOR

All undergraduate students seeking to declare a major in the Department of Communication must meet the following criteria:

- Completion of a minimum of 12 hours in residence at The University of Texas at Arlington with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.25/4.0.

Students who do not meet these minimum requirements can request to be admitted as an intended major. Please see restrictions below.

INTENDED MAJOR

1. Completion of a minimum of 12 hours in residence at The University of Texas at Arlington with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0/4.0.
2. Intended majors may enroll in up to a total of 18 hours in the Department of Communication (ADVT, BCMN, COMS, CTEC, JOUR, PCOM, PREL)
3. Students who do not achieve a cumulative UT Arlington GPA of 2.25/4.0 by the completion of 18 hours in the Department of Communication will not be cleared to continue in the department.

DISMISSAL FROM INTENDED STATUS

Students who do not meet the requirements for declaring a Department of Communication major after completing eighteen (18) hours of communication course work will not be allowed to take additional communication courses at UT Arlington. The student will be suspended from the Department of Communication Intended status and must choose a major not offered by the Department of Communication at that time in order to remain enrolled at UT Arlington.
