

Minor in French Global Studies

About This Program

The Minor in French provides foundational academic preparation for students to develop linguistic and intercultural competence through the study of French and the cultures of the French-speaking world. The minor program includes language and culture courses at the beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels and is designed to maximize the success of both language learners and native/heritage speakers of French. Language skills enable students to connect with individuals from diverse backgrounds, both personally and professionally. The minor program enhances students' career prospects in areas requiring advanced use of French such as government, international relations, business, education, media communications, and health, legal, and social services.

Competencies

1. Upon completion, students will demonstrate proficiency in listening, reading, speaking, and writing French (communication skills, critical thinking skills).
2. Upon completion, students will demonstrate intercultural knowledge and competence in French and Francophone cultures (social responsibility, global competence, critical thinking skills).
3. Upon completion, students will demonstrate an understanding of course content knowledge as it pertains to French (e.g., language, culture, literature, linguistics, and area/international studies) (disciplinary knowledge, critical thinking skills).
