Certificate in Managing Diversity & Inclusion

About This Program

The Certificate in Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations will provide students with an in-depth look at diversity in areas such as race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, disability, and family status among individuals, organizations, and society from a business perspective. The certificate equips students with knowledge and skills related to developing and managing diverse applicants, employees, customers, and constituents. The certificate is established in response to a growing demand for awareness in all areas of diversity and its impact on individuals, organizations, and society. The certificate is available to business and non-business majors as well as non-degree seeking students as a stand-alone certificate.

Competencies

- 1. Upon completion students will recognize diverse perspectives influencing business decisions.
- 2. Upon completion students will identify asset-based approaches to managing differences in the workplace.
- 3. Upon completion students will recall global frameworks for examining cross-cultural/multicultural differences.
