Mexican American Studies

CMAS Mission

The mission of the Center for Mexican American Studies (CMAS) is to administer an academic minor in Mexican American & Latina/o Studies, support and enhance research by UTA faculty engaged in studies on Latina/o issues, and serve as a bridge between UTA and the Latina/o community in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex through various service outreach activities.

HISTORY

Through the efforts of State Representative Roberto Alonzo of Dallas, the 73rd Texas Legislature authorized the creation of CMAS in 1993 as UTA’s focal point for interdisciplinary education, research, publication, and public outreach activities relating to Mexican Americans. (Acts 1993, 73rd R.S., ch. 1051, General and Special Laws of Texas). The Center began operating in 1994 under its founding director, José Ángel Gutiérrez.

MEXICAN AMERICAN AND LATINA/O STUDIES (MAS) MINOR

The rapidly changing demographics of the United States make knowledge of Latino culture a vital asset for any college graduate today. The minor in Mexican American & Latina/o Studies is a dynamic and interdisciplinary program that offers a strong complement to any undergraduate major and is especially practical for students majoring in Liberal Arts, Education, Business, Social Work, and Nursing. The MAS minor enables the student to explore issues that are critical to the understanding of Mexican American and Latina/o experiences in the United States, including in Texas. In addition, as private and government employers are increasingly requiring professionals with intercultural and international competence, the MAS minor provides students with unique training to be prepared for the challenges and opportunities to work and thrive in a competitive global society. Minoring in MAS also prepares students to live in a society in which Latinas/os increasingly are visible neighbors, fellow citizens, clients and co-workers.

STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THE MAS MINOR:

• Qualify for our annual Manuel Gamio & Brandenburg MAS scholarships
• Gain work experience with our unique internship opportunities
• Participate in research opportunities
• Strengthen their leadership capabilities
• Engage in service to the mexicano, Mexican American and Latino community
• Obtain valuable intercultural and international competence
• Network with students and student organizations with similar interests
• Develop and strengthen important skills in research, analysis, and writing
