

Minor in Art History

About This Program

The Minor in Art History provides an art or non-art major with a historical study of art and professional art history methodologies.

Competencies

1. Upon graduation, students will be able to demonstrate scholarly and ethical competence in the formulation of clearly articulated arguments with accurately cited sources.
2. Upon graduation, students will be able to recognize that works of art embody a diversity of human experiences including ethnicity, race, gender, and disability, as well as political, economic, and cultural factors over time and across the globe.
3. Upon graduation, students will be able to demonstrate a commitment to the continuous improvement of their work and their engagement with related activities and fellow student majors over the course of their time at UT-Arlington.
