

RN to Master of Science in Nursing (Family Nurse Practitioner) Fast Track

About this Program

The RN to Master of Science in Nursing (Family Nurse Practitioner) is designed for licensed registered nurses who wish to earn a BSN and continue their education immediately to a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN). Upon graduation, students are prepared to launch a successful career as a Family Nurse Practitioner.

Students who have successfully met the criteria for the RN-MSN undergraduate portion of the program, will be allowed to take two designated graduate courses that can be used to replace 6 hours of upper-division electives in the BSN program. The 6 hours of graduate courses will be counted toward both degrees.

Admissions Criteria

Continuing in the RN to MSN program requires a 3.3 GPA on the three indicator courses:

- NURS 3345
- NURS 3315
- NURS 4325

Students who make a 3.3 GPA in the indicator courses and maintain 3.0 each semester are eligible to take the graduate courses when the student is within 12 hours of completing BSN courses. The student completes a short form to indicate the desire to continue in the RN to MSN program and take the graduate courses. There is no need to apply for graduate admission; the graduate application fee and essay are not required. The hours required for them to complete their BSN degree will be adjusted to include the two MSN courses that are replacing upper division electives (NURS 5327 and NURS 5366).

When students complete their undergraduate degree requirements, they may apply for conferral of the BSN degree, while continuing in the RN to MSN program. They will be subject to the usual fees for graduation and diplomas. When the student has applied for conferral of his/her undergraduate degree, the responsibility for advising the student will be transferred to a graduate advisor within the College.
