Living on campus is a great way to get connected, meet friends, and be involved. To that end, University Housing offers single and double occupancy options available in residence halls or apartments. In addition, Learning Communities and Freshman Interest Groups are available to enhance the connection between student’s academic and social pursuits. All our communities are designed to meet the needs of today’s students and provide an environment that supports academic growth and community respect by offering opportunities for leadership, involvement, and connections for residents that live on campus.

The University is entitled to conduct criminal background checks on students applying for on-campus housing. Students will be notified if they are denied housing due to information gathered from a criminal background check per Texas Government Code, Section 411.094.

Apply for University Housing at www.uta.edu/housing.

B160 Lower Level, University Center · Box 19348 · 817-272-9234 · www.uta.edu/fsl Fraternity and Sorority Life at UT Arlington prepares young men and women to be contributing members of society. Fraternity and sorority members have a variety of opportunities on and off campus geared toward the enhancement of their educational experience and contributions toward their personal growth. Most importantly, fraternities and sororities focus on the development of four pillars; Brotherhood/Sisterhood, Philanthropy/Community Service, Scholarship and Leadership. The fraternity and sorority community is comprised of four governing bodies representing over 30 fraternities and sororities and two affiliated honorary organizations, Order of Omega and Gamma Sigma Alpha.

Health Services

605 South West Street · Box 19329 · 817-272-2771 · www.uta.edu/healthservices

Health Services is an ambulatory health care facility fully accredited by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care. Health Services’ mission is to support academic success by providing excellent health care and promoting wellness. It provides currently enrolled UTA students with quality, accessible, comprehensive, and cost-effective primary health care.

In addition to a general medicine clinic, Health Services provides a pharmacy, laboratory, radiology department, counseling and psychological services, women’s health clinic, immunization clinic, and a health promotion and substance abuse prevention office.

Medical Emergencies

For true medical emergencies on campus, or when the seriousness of an individual’s condition is uncertain, call the University Police at 817-272-3003. The police will dispatch officers to the site, and call an ambulance, if needed. Officers are trained in CPR and first aid, and can stabilize the individual until an ambulance arrives. This procedure should be followed even when Health Services is open. If individuals experiencing a medical emergency are off-campus, call 911.

The Follett Leadership Center

B160 Lower Level, University Center · Box 19340 · 817-272-9220 · www.uta.edu/leadership

Parents play a very valuable role in keeping the lines of communication open between students and various key offices on campus. The center helps families and students understand institutional processes so they can concentrate on academic, social, and overall success. The Parent & Family Center is available Monday through Friday during business hours to answer any questions parents or family members may have.

Relationship Violence and Sexual Assault Prevention Program

Ransom Hall 301 · Box 19355 · 817-272-3947 · www.uta.edu/rvsp (http://www.uta.edu/rvsp/)

The Relationship Violence and Sexual Assault Prevention (RVSP) program promotes education and awareness of intimate partner violence, sexual assault, harassment, and stalking on campus. An confidential advocate is available to provide advocacy, support, and referral services to students.
impacted by sexual and/or relationship violence. Anonymous forms to report an incident are available online. Additionally, the RVSP program hosts a number of training opportunities for faculty, staff, and students on response and advocacy. Educational and social programming highlighting the impact of sexual violence are the most prominent during Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM) in October and Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) in April. RVSP stands by and will always #BelieveSurvivors.

Student Organizations

Lower Level, University Center · Box 19348 · 817-272-2963 · www.uta.edu/studentorganizations (https://www.uta.edu/studentorganizations/)

Student Organizations serves as a focal point of out-of-classroom involvement and engagement at UTA. Participation in co-curricular activities helps students gain valuable skills and experiences that complement academic work, enhances leadership, and enriches the collegiate experience.

There are over 300 registered student organizations operating on campus. Groups are formed and governed by their members around a variety of common causes including academic/professional, sport/recreational, honorary, cultural, spiritual, and a variety of special interests. Don’t see exactly what you’re looking for? Make your way down to our offices and learn how you can form your own. Visit mavorgs.uta.edu for more information on campus organizations. Student Organizations is also where student organizations obtain approval to reserve space on campus, post flyers and publicity on campus and register their events. Organizations can receive consultation and advice on campus policy and operational matters.

Student Conduct

B170 Lower Level, University Center · Box 19355 · 817-272-2354 · www.uta.edu/conduct (http://www.uta.edu/conduct/)

The Office of Student Conduct is responsible for the implementation of the Student Conduct & Discipline Handbook of Operating Procedures and the Regents’ Rules and Regulations at the University of Texas at Arlington. The University of Texas at Arlington Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) contains official policies and procedures for the governance of UT Arlington. The Honor Code upholds UT Arlington’s tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence. Please see the University Requirements & Policies tab within the University Catalog for information on Student Conduct and Academic Integrity.

We strive to uphold and support standards of personal honesty and integrity for all students consistent with the goals of a community of scholars and students seeking knowledge and responsibility. Consistent with this goal, the office is engaged in the task of educating the community regarding standards for student behavior and procedures used in the resolution of student disciplinary allegations. Students at the University of Texas at Arlington are encouraged to engage their campus in a positive way. By staying educated on policy and procedure, students can ensure a healthy and productive education at the University of Texas at Arlington. The Office of Student Conduct sponsors several large scale programs across campus, smaller residence life focused programming efforts and training for students, staff and faculty throughout the year.

Student Governance

B150, Lower Level, E. H. Hereford University Center · Box 19350 · 817-272-0556 · www.uta.edu/studentgovernance (http://www.uta.edu/studentgovernance/)

Student Governance is dedicated to providing a medium for students to voice their concerns and opinions and hosts of UTA. By serving as the voice of the student body, Student Government and the Graduate Student Senate provide student representation on various university committees and have the opportunity to represent the student perspective on a variety of campus issues.

The UTA Ambassadors serve as the official student hosts of UT Arlington, under the direction of Mr. and Ms. UTA. The group maintains and promotes new and old campus traditions; increases awareness of UT Arlington’s services, programs, and activities to students and the surrounding community; and establishes and strengthens pride and passion for UT Arlington on and off-campus. The UTA Ambassadors are involved in the planning of the Maverick Speakers Series, the Maverick of the Month recognition program, the UTA Spirit Horse initiative, and Spirit Week.

Student Government is UTA’s elected representative body for undergraduate and graduate students. Members work to implement change on campus, solicit concerns, and propose resolutions to solve problems. The group serves as the major link between students and the administration. In addition, the organization sponsors voter registration drives, supports the on-campus early voting polling site, and hosts various programs to solicit student feedback on a variety of campus issues.

The Graduate Student Senate (GSS) understands the needs and concerns of graduate students here at UTA. The Graduate Student Senate passes resolutions to improve graduate student life on campus, hosts guest speakers to discuss current issues, creates ad-hoc committees to research potential changes in University policy that may impact graduate students, and assists with Graduate Forums, the ACES research symposium, and the Graduate School Showcase.

Student Publications

Lower Level, E.H. Hereford University Center · Box 19038 · 817-272-3661 · www.uta.edu/studentpubs (http://www.uta.edu/studentpubs/) and www.theshorthorn.com (http://www.theshorthorn.com/)

The Student Publications department employs more than 100 student journalists, advertising sales representatives, marketing assistants, web developers, and office assistants in jobs that help them prepare for their careers. The department publishes The Shorthorn, the Maverick Connection phone directory and the Maverick Housing Guide. It also houses a full-service creative services agency. The department's mission is to provide a spectrum of hands-on communication training to students while providing a valuable news service to the UTA community and an open forum for free expression.

The Shorthorn is UTA's oldest and most honored source of news and information. Students created the award-winning student newspaper in 1919. Today, The Shorthorn delivers news as it happens through its website and social media channels. It also provides a daily summary of pertinent headlines emailed to you with links that will work on any mobile device or computer. The print edition is published every Wednesday. The Shorthorn website also contains interactive features, videos, and photo galleries of student events and activities, and lets you submit your own photos to the newspaper. Shorthorn discussions also allow you to express your opinions on campus issues in an open forum.

Student Activities
B160 Lower Level, University Center · Box 19348 · 817-272-2963 · www.uta.edu/universityevents (http://www.uta.edu/universityevents/)

University Events collaborates with departments and organizations to produce large-scale campus events that engage students, staff, and faculty, while strengthening students' ties to the university and community. University Events is involved in the planning of Maverick Stampede (Welcome Week), the MavsMeet AfterParty, Homecoming, the Spring Concert, and BlockParty. University Events is also home to the UTA Ambassadors and The Big Event.

The university’s student programming board, EXCEL Campus Activities, plans and implements social, recreational, cultural and educational events. From large to small, throughout the year there are a variety of events and traditions that make the university an enriching place to make the most of your time. These diverse programs become an essential part of the culture on campus because they are student led and university supported. These events and activities are open to all students; you can even get involved by becoming a member of EXCEL.

The Big Event is an organization of service-minded students whose purpose is to plan and implement a day of community service and outreach involving UTA students, faculty, staff and community members in an effort to engage, educate, and mobilize volunteers throughout the community. Numerous community-based and non-profit organizations/agencies benefit from the volunteer efforts, as well as local residents. Enthusiastic volunteers participate in various service project sites such as painting, landscaping, youth development workshops, and facility cleanup all on one BIG day.

Veteran Programs
www.uta.edu/vac (http://www.uta.edu/vac/)

Veterans and their families are valued and vital components of the UTA community. The University serves more than 3,000 student veterans and dependents of military veterans working to earn college degrees. We are constantly looking for ways to ease their transition to college, and we provide a full range of services to help them adapt and succeed in their academic pursuits. From Veterans Education Counselors working with the Veterans Commission, to career development, to financial aid, we've got veterans covered. For more information, visit uta.edu/vac (https://www.uta.edu/vac/).

Veteran’s Assistance Center is the hub for coordinating all veteran service departments at UTA, serving as a liaison and advocate for military connected students. Available to answer questions, and assist in obstacle navigation, the Executive Director is knowledgeable about UTA student support services and can connect military connected students with the appropriate departments best suited to assist with their individual needs.
