

University Programs

Overview

University Programs comprise programs administered by units reporting to the Office of the Provost. The Center for African American Studies and the Center for Mexican American Studies report to the Vice Provost of Academic Affairs. The University Studies program is administered by the Division of Student Success. The Multidisciplinary Studies program is administered by the Graduate School.